

WORKING WITH LGBTQ YOUTH 101

interactive training

presented by

ROSMY-Institute for Equality

in partnership with

Virginia Home for Boys and Girls

and

Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services

April 13, 2011

9 am - 4 pm

VHBG
8716 W. Broad St.
Richmond, VA 23294
804.270.6566

$30 per person

Accredited by NASW
for 6 CEU credits

- Learn the basics such as accurate and respectful terminology and the difference between sexual orientation and gender identity.
- Get practical experience navigating difficult dialogues such as how to ask “the question,” the importance of asking, and how to determine when it is appropriate.
- Additionally, you will receive 10 easy tips for being an advocate for LGBTQ youth.

LIMITED SPACE! If you would like to register for this event, please click here <http://tinyurl.com/47dk79k>

ROSMY's trainings have won the Fitz-Turner Award from the Virginia Education Association for outstanding leadership in promoting positive intergroup relations.

