Definition of Certificate Types

Birth Certificate (Short Form): Standard Birth Certificate needed in a vast majority of situations. An abstract of the Certificate of Live Birth. Accepted by all local, state and federal agencies including passport and social security offices. Also accepted by schools, social and civic organizations.

Certificate of Foreign Birth: A birth certificate established for a child born in a foreign country and adopted by parents who were Virginia residents at the time of the adoption.

Delayed Birth Registration Certificate: A birth certificate established for an individual who birth certificate was not recorded at the time of birth.

Special Use Birth Certificate (Long Form): Very limited necessity. This type of request will experience increased processing times. An image copy of the Certificate of Live Birth received from the hospital, birthing facilities or midwife. Commonly requested for Dual Citizenship applications and special genealogy needs.

Amendment Guidance

Most items (misspelling of the name of the registrant and/or parents, incorrect date and/or place of birth, incorrect ages of parents, incorrect sex of registrant, etc.) on a birth certificate can be corrected either administratively or judicially. There are several provisions outlined in the Code of Virginia and the Regulations Governing Vital Records detailing how a birth certificate can be amended. To properly advise, the Office of Vital Records must review the birth certificate and work cooperatively with the customer.
