

CALLING 911 ON AN OVERDOSE JUST GOT SAFER.

SSB 667: Safe Reporting — Effective July 1, 2020

No one is subject to arrest or prosecution for drugs/paraphernalia if seeking emergency medical attention for themselves or others who are overdosing.

Individuals are expected to remain at the scene and identify themselves to emergency services.

This law acts as affirmative defense; admitting that there was a crime but offering an explanation or justification for the incident.