

*If a pregnant person from the community has a clinical presentation consistent with measles, please follow this algorithm, but also consider rubella. If the pregnant person has not been screened for rubella or is IgG negative for rubella, consider testing for rubella and consult with the local health department.