

May is National Hepatitis Awareness Month

Hepatitis A Vaccine Clinics Monday, May 20th

WHAT

Hepatitis A vaccines offered at all TJHD Health Departments

WHEN

9:00 AM - 11:30 AM
Walk-in visits
No appointment needed

WHERE

Charlottesville/Albemarle Health Department

1138 Rose Hill Drive, Charlottesville, Va • (434) 972-6269

Fluvanna County Health Department

132 Main Street, Palmyra, Va • (434) 591-1960

Greene County Health Department

50 Stanard Street, Stanardsville, Va • (434) 985-2262

Louisa County Health Department

540 Industrial Drive, Louisa, Va • (540) 967-3703

Nelson County Health Department

4038 Thomas Nelson Highway, Arrington, Va • (434) 263-8315

Call your local health department for more information.
Vaccines are for people ages 18+ and are free or at low cost.

Hepatitis A is a contagious virus that attacks the liver. Recently, there has been a large increase in the number of Hepatitis A cases in Virginia. Hepatitis A can be prevented with a vaccine that is safe and effective. Learn more at www.CDC.gov/Hepatitis

