Single Status Letter Instructions:

Single Status Letters are to verify that no current marriage is on file in the Commonwealth of Virginia. This document is usually needed for marriages that will occur abroad. In Party One of the Marriage Information section of the application, list the name of the person requiring the single status letter. Attach to the application a signed letter with the following information.

- Date of birth of the person requiring the single status letter
- Time period residing in the Commonwealth of Virginia (ex. 1980 2001)
- Time period requesting to be search (ex. 1987 1997)
- Date of any marriages, if applicable
- Date of any divorces, if applicable

Amendment Guidance

Amendments to marriage and divorce records are handled by the Circuit Court where the license was issued or the divorce granted. You should contact the court directly to initiate the change. Upon granting the requested change the court will forward the order to the Office of Vital Records.
